

Deputies' Meeting

Monday, 1 December 1952

PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Wolf, Hedden, Amory, [redacted]

General Smith:

a. Noted a cable to the Senior Representative, [redacted] concerning [redacted] and asked if the information contained therein indicated that we were in for another "flap". Mr. Dulles stated he did not believe so and the above cable was based on information furnished by [redacted] and pertained to [redacted]. After some discussion, the DCI asked that Mr. Dulles further discuss this matter with [redacted].

b. Referred to a cable from the Senior Representative, [redacted] and stated that (1) from the information contained therein it would appear that he (the Senior Representative) had personally visited [redacted] (2) if this be true, he deserved a commendation for his excellent report. [redacted] undertook to follow through on this.

Mr. Dulles:

a. Reported he had received a call from Scotty Reston concerning a [redacted] who had (1) been recruited for a position with the Agency by [redacted] (2) been unofficially advised we did have an opening for him; (3) on the strength of this rented a house in Washington; (4) been notified that the position for which he had been considered had been abolished. The Director stated that (1) without knowing the facts of this case he was positive [redacted] had been assured of a position prior to a security check which he apparently failed; (2) it had come to his attention on other occasions that prospective employees had been more or less assured of positions prior to investigation by Security and he desired that such practice be discontinued; (3) this was an administrative matter and, therefore, should be handled by DD/A. Mr. Hedden noted that similar cases of this nature had been brought to his attention and he had undertaken the preparation of a form to be signed by all applicants which would, if approved, obviate recurrences of this type.

b. Noted that [redacted] had concurred in our plan for Africa as discussed at previous Deputies' Meetings. (NOTE: This is the plan stemming from comments and recommendations contained in a letter [redacted] to DDCI.)
